HOUSEHOLD.

PIE MAKING.

Nothing can be more thoroughly satisfying than a good home made pie. In fact, it is a great treat. The making of a gool pie is not a difficult matter, but requires a certain lightness in handling, a deftness in the putting together of the ingredients. Like millinery, the more quickly pastery is tossed together, the lighter and better the effect.

First give yourself plenty of elbowroom. Then get together all the ingredients and utensils; let the fire be in such a state that you will not have to give it a second thought; then, one -two-three-and begin!

It is out of the question to do good baking of any kind with inferior flour. It is really economy to get the best brand of fanily flour; and be sure you keep it in a dry place.

Sift the flour well, and then mix the salt well through it. If you should use all butter for shortening, you will not require so much salt. Where lard only is used, half a teaspoonful of salt will be necessary to a pint and a half of

It is considered advisable to make pastry in a cold room, and using ice water. But the most tempting pies I have ever seen were made in a hot kitchen on a hot summer day, and with water that was anything but ice-

In putting on the upper crust of a pie, first moisten with a mere brushing of milk or white of egg the edge of the lower. The two crusts will then adhere, and the juice and flavor then be retained.

To give a nice brown surface to pies, brush them over with white of egg while hot, or with a very little milk, before they are baked.

French Puff Paste.—Sift into a bowl one pound of flour. Divide three quarters of a pound of butter into two equal parts. Cut up into the flour one-half of the butter. Beat the yolk of one egg. and then stir it into half a cup of ice water, or water that is quite cold, and mix this with the flour, making a stiff dough. Roll the dough out very thin, and spread it with one-third of the remaining half of the butter, sprinkle very lightly with flour, fold up and roll out again, and spread again with butter, repeating this process till all the butter is used up. When the pies are baked, brush the tops with the white of the egg, which must be Transparent Crust.—Melt one pound of butter in a saucepan which has been set in another vessel with boiling water, and stir to keep it from boiling. When well melted, remove the salty scum; beat up the butter, little by little, with the beaten white of one egg. When thoroughly beaten, work in one pound of flour. Roll out twice, sprinkling lightly with flour before folding up. Let it remain folded in a cold place for about ten minutes before using. This about ten minutes before using. This crust should only be used for tarts and pates, and not for large pies.

Plain Pie Crust.-Into three cups of flour cut up one cup of shortening—half lard, half butter. Rub the shortening lightly through the flour, and wet with cold water till it will roll out. If the quantity of butter will not give the flour a sufficiently salt taste, add the fourth of a teaspoonful of salt. Roll out lightly and quickly. This quantity will make two pies.

In preparing apples for pie, use only those which will cook quickly and cook clear. Use as little water as will serve. To apple enough for each pie add a teaspoonful of butter, sugar, and grated nutmeg or grated lemon rind. Boiled custard—each goblet containing half a dozen blanched almonds—is a delightful addition to some with apple si ful addition to serve with apple pie.

For pumkin pie, bake the pumpkin instead of stewing it. It will be much richer and drier. While you scald pint of milk, scoop out a quart of the baked pumpkin. Mix the milk with it, add three well beaten eggs, a teaspoonful and a half of rose water, one table spoonful of butter, a teaspoonful and a half of ginger, a teaspoonful of cinnamon. Scalding the milk enriches the pumpkin, and thus fewer eggs are required. quired.

For apple meringue stew green ap ples very dry; sweeten thoroughly add the beaten yolks of two eggs, th grated rind of a lemon, one tablespoor ful of butter, and one teaspoonful of mace. Bake on a bottom crust. Bea the whites with sugar to a stiff froth pile it on the meringue, and set it i the oven to color the icing lightly. EMMA M. JOHNSTON.

NOTICE TO THE BRETHREN.

I have just sent to each County Secretary in the State, and to the State and District Lecturers and Steward, some copies of President Polk's official plan for organizing a lecture system which is sent out by the instructions of the National Legislative Council of our Order. Be sure those circulars are carefully read, studied and explained at your next county meeting. Do all in your power to see its requirements carried out. We must have a uniform understanding of our secret work, a higher appreciation and more thorough knowledge of the noble principles of our Order and unity of action wherever our interests are concerned. It is impossible for us to have these things without a thorough system of lecturing. If we follow the "plan" we will soon have that. Lend your aid and influence, my brother. Be sure to attend your county meeting and look after this all-important matter.

Yours fraternally, E. C. Beddingfield, Sec'y N. C. F. S. A.

This is the great problem of life which fev satisfactorily solve; Some fail because of poor health, others want of luck, but the majority health, others want of luck, but the majority from deficient grit—want of nerve. A FATAL MISTAKE.

Physicians make no more fatal mistaks than when they inform patients that nervous heart troubles come from the stomach and are of little troubles come from the stomach and are of little consequence. It cures nervous and organic heart disease, short breath, fluttering, pain or tenderness in the side, arm or shoulder, irregular pulse, fainting, smothering, dropsy, etc. His Restorative Nervine cures headache, fits, etc.
